

Life Beyond Taking-Sides: Growing from blame toward empathy and community

An Experiential Evening of Engagement and Film

Saturday evening, April 6, 2019 • San Mateo, California USA

\(See Event Flyer\)

Sharing time, in triads participants listened to each other's personal experiences.

3

Usual Communication

100% Attentive Preparing to React 100% React

Dialogue

100% Attentive Listening to Learn 100% Inquire

Connection between generations has great meaning for all ages and for our times.

The Film
ADMISSIONS
 26 International Film Festival Awards
\(Trailer\)

Special Guest:
 Writer-Producer
John Viscount

The short film starring Academy Award nominee James Cromwell is a transformational tale of what takes place in the admissions room for the afterlife to move from blame to empathy and personal responsibility. An Israeli couple and a Palestinian man create a modern parable for our times, with the possibility of starting a conversation that heals.

*WHAT IN THE FILM TOUCHED YOU,
 had meaning for you?*

What creative idea or possible personal initiative was awakened for you or your larger community?

Assimilating the experience back together in the big circle.

Offuh James Offuh, an exemplary relationship healer at home in Cote d'Ivoire, West Africa, closed the evening with gratitude and a blessing for the participants, all humankind, and Earth.

ADMISSIONS streams freely at <https://pepstar.org/peace-entertainment-admissions/>
View it also in Arabic, Hebrew, Farsi, Spanish, and Italian.

Sponsor

Jewish-Palestinian Living Room Dialogue of San Mateo

Contact

LTraubman@igc.org or +1 (650) 574-8303

Co-sponsor

Peninsula Conflict Resolution Center

\(See Event Flyer\)

This document is on the Web at <https://traubman.igc.org/admissionseveningstory.pdf>