

Carl Landman

13 Sept 1920 (Mannheim, Germany) - 20 Sept 2011 (Palo Alto, California)

Carl left Nazi Germany where he was Bar Mitzvah in 1933 in Mannheim. In America he carried on his father's lithography profession, before pioneering packaged gourmet coffee beans with his Carl Landman Company — Landmark. He was President of the Board of Trustees for P.A.R.C.A., and was on the Board of Trustees of Peninsula School. Carl was a Trustee for Gateway Center, a facility for developmentally disabled adults. Carl and his wife, Doris, were a passionate learner and participant in Palestinian-Jewish Living Room Dialogue since the early 1990s. Carl and Doris were married for 68 years.
