Every five years the Parliament of the World's Religions gathers in one place nearly 10,000 citizens from all continents to cultivate face-to-face engagement and harmony among the world's religious and spiritual communities to achieve a just, peaceful, and sustainable global community. Earlier meetings were in Melbourne (2009), Barcelona (2004), Cape Town (1999), and Chicago (1993).

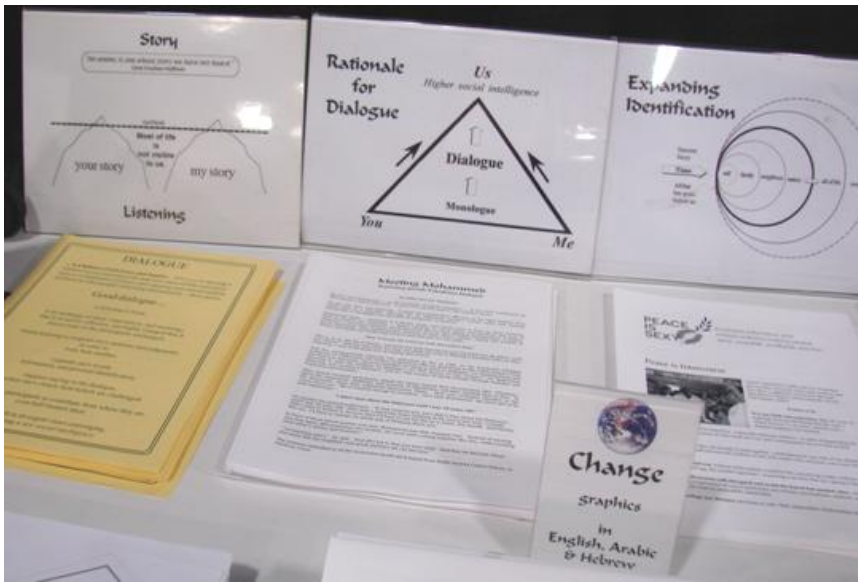

In October, 2015, participants of the 23-year-old Jewish-Palestinian Living Room Dialogue traveled from California to create a booth for mutual learning and exchanging life experiences. The four-person team gifted to attendees how-to, inspirational Dialogue guidelines and a thousand DVDs of its instructive documentary films. With us was Charles Obiorah Kwuelum, to represent the Dialogue's outreach into Nigeria, greater Africa, and all continents.
