

"An enemy is one whose story we have not heard."

- Ms. Gene Knudsen Hoffman

Inviting San Mateo's diverse community

Older teens • Adults • Educators • Activists • Businesspeople • Clergy

Crossing Lines in San Mateo

Sharing stories, Creating community

An inspiring, hands-on community workshop for respectful communication across all lines beginning with a new quality of listening to one another — to everyone.

Sunday afternoon • January 29, 2017

2:30 pm • Educational Exhibits & How-to Materials

3:00 SHARP – 5:00 pm • Participatory Program

Free how-to videos and facilitation tips to take home

Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Center

725 Monte Diablo Avenue — San Mateo, CA

Limited seating • RSVP early • (650) 574-8303 or LTraubman@earthlink.net

Participation free • Ample free parking • No childcare available

This practical afternoon to create a San Mateo culture of listening and inclusion offers modern tools of communication for your home, school, business, neighborhood, and global community.

Facilitators Libby and Len Traubman co-founded the 24-year-old Jewish-Palestinian Living Room Dialogue of San Mateo featured on CNN, NPR, MSNBC, and Voice of America. They co-produced five films including DIALOGUE AT WASHINGTON HIGH, PEACEMAKERS: Palestinians & Jews Together at Camp, DIALOGUE IN NIGERIA: Muslims & Christians Creating Their Future, and CROSSING LINES IN FRESNO. They have guided hundreds of dependably successful Dialogues on high school and university campuses, and in neighborhoods across America and overseas.

Roots of this Dialogue are in South African interracial, interreligious story and meal-sharing during apartheid 1980s, and in early 1990s Black-White meal-sharing in San Mateo homes.

Co-sponsors:

Jewish-Palestinian Living Room Dialogue of San Mateo with

Peninsula Conflict Resolution Center • Sustainable San Mateo County • Conscious Elders Network

Event information on the Web at <http://traubman.igc.org/sanmateocrossinglines.htm>

