

A public participatory evening of Dialogue among Santa Cruz residents, youth and adults

Engaging the Other with personal narratives and a new quality of communication about the parallel 1948 Israeli Independence and Palestinian Catastrophe

Facilitated by Libby and Len Traubman

Co-founders of the 15-year-old Jewish-Palestinian Living Room Dialogue

Join your Santa Cruz neighbors for an evening of music, stories, listening and learning

Thursday, May 29, 2008 ~ 7:00 pm Sharp - 9:30 pm

Messiah Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall 801 High Street ~ Santa Cruz

Libby and Len Traubman for 25 years have facilitated dialogues between "enemies" including Soviets and Americans, Armenians and Azerbaijanis, and Palestinians and Jews - Muslims, Christians and Jews. Their work has inspired many others to begin sustained dialogue groups on campuses and in communities around the world. To learn more about the San Mateo Dialogue visit <http://traubman.igc.org/dg-prog.htm> or Google "Jewish Palestinian Dialogue."

For more information, call Dave Dodson: (831) 459-9968