

UNDERSTANDING AND EMBRACING THE ENEMY

An Israeli and Palestinian/Jordanian Tell Their Stories

Presented By The Muslim Solidarity Group of Sanctuary Santa Cruz

Saturday, October 27, 2018 7–9 pm

Resource Center for Nonviolence

612 Ocean Street, Santa Cruz

Shlomit and Muna talk about growing up in the Middle East amidst the agonies of war, learning fear and judgment of each other given the political and religious divide in the area.

They come together to call for a conscious and humanitarian action to overcome hatred and enmity through open mindedness and heartfulness.

They invite us to join them in a timely conversation about developing empathy, understanding and respect for all human rights, and to coexist in peace.

Shlomit Manneberg was born in Israel to a Jewish family. She is passionate about healing herself and others from the wounds of war and violence and seeking non-violent communication between all cultures. Shlomit is active in groups advocating for peace, human kindness, and clear and honest communication.

Muna Alsheikh, M.Ed., is Muslim raised in Jordan to Palestinian parents and is married to an American of Christian-Jewish-Sufi background. She is a public speaker and facilitates workshops about cross-cultural connection and peace. Website: <http://arabquestforpeace.com/index.html>
