

"An enemy is one whose story we have not heard." - Ms. Gene Knudsen Hoffman

Inviting Fresno's diverse community
Students • Families • Educators • Activists • Businesspeople • Clergy • Everyone

Crossing Lines

Story as entry to relationship & change

An inspiring, hands-on community workshop for communicating across all lines beginning with a new quality of listening to one another - to everyone.

Thursday evening, October 1, 2009

5:15 pm • Educational Exhibits & Refreshments
6:00 SHARP – 8:00 pm • Participatory Program

Free how-to videos and literature to take home

Alliant International University - Fresno

5130 E. Clinton Way - Fresno, CA

Please RSVP to: 559-253-2204 or DaveW@mha-cv.org

Participation free • Donations appreciated

This practical evening is to offer modern tools of communication for your home, school, business, neighborhood, and global community.

Facilitators Libby and Len Traubman co-founded the 17-year-old Jewish-Palestinian Living Room Dialogue of San Mateo, California, featured on CNN, NPR, MSNBC, and Voice of America. They co-produced two films: DIALOGUE AT WASHINGTON HIGH, and PEACEMAKERS: Palestinians & Jews Together at Camp. They are in Fresno to offer this experience that has recently meant so much to diverse school students and other citizens including in Houston, Charlotte, and Cleveland, where the Traubmans were on the Design Team of the new National Peace Academy.

Co-sponsors:

Interfaith Social Justice Collaborative

with

Alliant International University - Fresno • Mental Health America of the Central Valley

Event information on the Web at <http://traubman.igc.org/fresnonight.htm>